I 100 LIMITED EDITION MS CHARGER #11

$125

DESCRIPTION

The stern expression of a young woman partly covered by a mysterious shadow is rendered in an expressive style, exuding sensual and refined charm. Part of a limited series designed by Marco Solzi, this piece was made of steel with a brushed finished and decorated with the screen printing technique. Either as a decorative accent in a living room or study or as a charger combined with the other portraits in the same series, this will be a superb addition to a modern home.
