NATURA MORTA SUPPORT IN PIETRA SERENA STONE

$300

DESCRIPTION

Part of the Natura Morta collection, this receptacle is made in pietra serena, a gray sandstone extensively used during the Renaissance period. Its clean shape features a hole at the top where branches (not included) can be placed, creating a striking arrangement that can enrich and modify a space. Inspired by the ancient Japanese tradition of Ikebana, natural elements balance the spirit and represent nature in its solemn beauty.
