NIGHT CLIMBING PLANTS AND BLUE BIRD DINNER PLATE

$110

DESCRIPTION

Part of the Blue Bestiary collection, this unique dinner plate was made of clay with a glazed surface and decorated entirely by hand using the "engobbio" method. Featuring an eclectic style and blue, light grey, and black colors over the white background, this piece depicts two plants seemingly raising to reach the moon, while bluebirds fly between them. This unique scene was inspired by J.L. Borges' "The Book of Imaginary Beings" and by a manuscript on herbs entitled "Compendium Salernitanum" published probably in Venice around 1350-1375.
