DESCRIPTION

This sublime piece of decor is a veritable work of art that will enrich the look of a traditional home. Its classical-inspired shape comprises five elements made from five separate molds, subsequently fired and assembled. The base of this stunning vase is in glazed porcelain, while the relief is in biscuit, from a design part of the Medici collection from 1811, gathered from Richard Ginori's inventory. The relief drawing is a Neo-Classical rendition of the nuptials of Peleus and Thetis, derived from Greek mythology and will infuse elegant sophistication in any interior.
