OH! TELL PLATE

DESCRIPTION

Fittingly named OH! TELL, this whimsical round serving plate is characterized by its meticulous craftsmanship and aesthetic irony. This piece is an original made by the Richard company in San Cristoforo dating back to the 1900s. The fine alternating blue and red lines along the rim elegantly frame the colorful image of a red apple poised on a man's head. Reminiscent of the legendary folk story of William Tell, this plate elevates tableware to art and is best displayed hung on a wall in an entryway, or used on formal dining occasions.
