OSSOBUCO CABINET

$8,290

DESCRIPTION

Prized wood combined with a high-quality construction come together in this refined cabinet that stands out for its sleek and essential design. The tall natural oak wood frame is supported by four block feet and features two large doors finished in open-pore charcoal black. A square in Canaletto walnut wood on the lower side of the left door provides a striking contrast of color and texture, infusing the piece with personality. It is possible to customize the size and finish on request, please contact the Concierge for additional details and availability.
