CAMEL MENAGERIE OTTOMANE PORCELAIN DINNER PLATE

$80

DESCRIPTION

Inspired by the Sultans' menagerie, a zoo with exotic animals gifted to them by foreign dignitaries, this plate is entirely handmade of porcelain and hand-decorated with a realistic rendition of an Arabian camel in all its majesty set against a verdant landscape in faded colors, evoking far-away oases in the desert. The exquisitely executed decoration and the rich colors will create a dynamic effect on the table when used with the other of the same collection.
