PAPAVERO BLANKET

$4,320

DESCRIPTION

Named after the bright red color reminiscent of a poppy flower ("papavero" in Italian), this blanket will add an extra layer of comfort and a splash of color to a sofa or bed. Finished with stylish macramé fringe knotted by hand around the edges, this blanket is composed of three panels handwoven on an ancient olive wood loom using the finest linen threads that are sewn together by hand. A welcome addition to both modern and traditional interiors, this blanket can be paired with complementing home accessories for a glamorous look.
