PEONIA PANEL #11

$1,410

DESCRIPTION

The Rifiorire Collection (meaning "to bloom again") inspired a series of enchanting decorative panels portraying blossoming peonies on a square background. In this piece, prized wood essences - maple wood for the peony's petals and blue-stained tulipwood for the background - are expertly carved by skillful craftsmen to create the delicate overall design. Potential, slight flaws will testify the piece's top-rate artisan quality.
