PINGUINO COFFEEPOT

$750

DESCRIPTION

Part of the Pinguino series, this sophisticated silver-plated metal coffeepot is a sculptural accent piece that will be a show-stopping serving container for coffee or teas on special occasions. The solid, bulb-shaped body has a delicately curved spout and an angular, minimalist handle connected to the pot lid. This sleek and seamless design is enhanced by the lustrous finish of the silver plating, achieved through the meticulous crafting process. This exclusive piece and its subtle details give it a timeless heirloom quality.
