PONTI 969 WHITE LEATHER CHAIR BY GIO PONTI

$970

DESCRIPTION

Stunning and modern, this chair is the revisitation of a design first introduced by legendary architect Giò Ponti in 1936 at the Triennale di Milano. The minimalist structure of the piece is adorned with a wavy open backrest, whose bold and sinuous pattern is recalled in the name of the collection: Ponti 969. Entirely crafted of wood with an opaque white finish, the chair has a seat upholstered in white leather chair for a cohesive effect.
