$9,790

DESCRIPTION

The contemporary and playful design of this unique cabinet makes it a bold, eye-catching piece that can be used as storage furniture in the bedroom, or tall sideboard in a dining room or living room. The structure in brushed brass rests on a square base and supports the body of the piece in transparent, extra-light crystal, whose front door is protected by a safe-like locking mechanism also in brushed brass. While storing its content, this cabinet reveals its essence, becoming a symbolic object of functional decor in which one can choose what is worth guarding.
