PRIMA LUCE REED DIFFUSER

$80

DESCRIPTION

Made by hand, our diffusers feature 100 ml (3.5 oz) solution infused with precious scents that are vegan, non-texted on animals, and phthalate-free. The base for the liquid is made with low carbon footprint using glycerin and is non-flammable and non-toxic. The reeds are made of 100% natural vegetable fiber and are short and thick for a unique look and exceptional fragrance delivery. The diffuser and reeds come in a white glass bottle branded with our logo in black, contained in a cylindrical cardboard box sealed with a metal pressure lid. Prima Luce means Dawn in Latin. This scent is inspired by the notes of sunny pine forest and blood orange. On a base of cedar wood and pine, the notes of aromatic herbs and citrus are reminiscent of summer afternoons. Under the shade of Italian stone pines, you return home after a day at the beach, peeling an orange and eating it, while the shade of the trees fills up with the songs of cicadas. Olfactory pyramid: Head: orange peel, bergamot; Heart: orange blossom, thyme; Base: cedar wood, stone pine needles.
