RACCOLTE TURMALINA VASE

$860

DESCRIPTION

The optical illusion of an amphora-vase profile distinguishes this exclusive vase handcrafted of clear Murano glass in a soft green hue. The glass body (food safe) is a modern rearrangement of leftover pieces from discontinued collections once commercialized by a popular Lombard brand, featuring: a sinuous, concave element tapering to a slender neck forming the top half and a wide, convex element drawn downwards forming the bottom half. A tripod brass base with a luminous satin finish sustains and completes the design.
