RED DECANTER WITH STRIPES

$320

DESCRIPTION

This elegant object is fashioned of mouth-blown Murano crystal and entirely hand-decorated by master artisans. A one-of-a-kind example of exquisite traditional craftsmanship and modern aesthetic, this piece can serve as a modern decanter on a refined table or a vase in an eclectic entryway or living room. A single red line spirals along on its sinuous silhouette and thickens at the neck, right before the flared mouth, and at the bottom, leaving the widest section of the body unadorned. Each of these precious objects of functional decor is signed and dated by the maker.
