RESTING FLYING DEER DINNER PLATE

$110

DESCRIPTION

The unique design of this dinner plate is inspired by a manuscript on herbs published in Northern Italy in the middle of the 14th century and by J.L. Borges' "Book of Imaginary Beings." The result is a work of art, an entirely hand-painted object made using clay with a glazed surface. On it, a deer in the act of flying is rendered in a uniquely eclectic style in light blue, black, and light grey with the traditional "engobbio" technique. Part of the Blue Bestiary collection, this one-of-a-kind plate can be combined with the others in the same series for a cohesive look.
