RIDDLE TOTEM BY STEVEN HOLL

$20,760

DESCRIPTION

A decorative piece of design that can be used in both height- and lengthwise manner as either a bookcase or a display cabinet, this striking totem structure is a veritable sculptural work of art by Steven Holl. Enclosed in and supported by an aluminum frame, it comprises five containers of different geometric shapes, equipped with opening doors with a magnetic system. Obtained from 2mm-thick layers of walnut wood accurately laser-cut and folded in an origami-like silhouette thanks to advanced technological techniques patented by Horm.
