SAGITTARIUS EARRINGS

$240

DESCRIPTION

This pair of earrings, part of the Constellation Collection, is a celebration of the last of the fire signs, Sagittarius. Governed by Jupiter, the people born under this sign are believed to be adventurous and passionate, optimist and in good spirits. Its color is orange, here represented by the single, hand-mounted topaz that shines at the center of the hexagonal-shaped post with a stardust finish. The 3-cm long pendant is made of three smaller hexagons each connected with a chain link. These earrings are entirely made of ruthenium-plated 925 silver.
