SANREMO GAME COMPENDIUM

$3,860

DESCRIPTION

Crafted using traditional methods of water-resistant saddle leather, this games compendium is a superb accent for a modern home. The exterior resembles a striking box with lid with an eye-catching pattern that can be used as a draughts board, while the bottom of the box features a backgammon board. The inside of the box reveals a precious set of boxwood chess pawns, saddle leather draughts, saddle leather domino pieces, two decks of high-quality playing cards, four standard dice, one doubling cube, and one Legacci notebook with saddle leather cover.
