SET OF 2 CENTAURI GOBLETS

$4,840

DESCRIPTION

This set of two bronze goblets is an accurate reproduction of ancient Roman silver glasses found in the ruins of Pompei and now on display at the National Archeological Museum of Naples. These elegant pieces feature a splendid bas relief depicting a female and a male centaur covered with lion skin and each mounted by a child. The mythological creatures are exquisitely rendered among a bucolic scene of trees and statues and bring a timeless accent to any table.
