DESCRIPTION

Elaborately crafted by Apulian designer Maria Barrotta, this sublime bracelet is unassuming in its complexity and grace. The unconventional silhouette is formed by a series of overlapping, irregular circles fashioned of alternating 925 silver and bronze connected by subtle silver studs. A delicate, fuchsia rhodolite stone is framed by the silver lock clasp, which effortlessly fits into the keyhole opening for a striking visual effect. The whimsical combination of colors, materials, and lusters results in a dynamic and inspired piece of jewelry that will shine in any occasion.
