SMALL PULCINELLA STATUE

$1,925

DESCRIPTION

Striking and poetic, this unique statue presented at Milan Design Week 2018 is a testament to Neapolitan art and tradition. Meticulously crafted, this statue of Pulcinella, iconic character from the 17th century Commedia dell'Arte, is seated on a cut-off column playing the mandolin. Small details bring this piece to life, from the sinuous folds of his baggy white ensemble and the red socks to the black mask and hooked nose. Resting atop a white pedestal with alternating black-white striped pedestal, this unique piece of decor will infuse mysterious allure into a traditional decor.
