SPONZA FRISE SET OF BOWL AND TRAY

$330

DESCRIPTION

Part of the Bianconero Collection, Antonio Marras designed and handcrafted this white majolica set as an homage to local Apulian culinary traditions. Titled "sponza frise" in Apulian dialect, it features a demi-lune tray for serving the local dry bread "frisella" after being soaked in water and seasoned, and of a bowl placed beneath for catching the excess liquids. Eye-catching, hand-painted decorations of faces in dynamic black and red brushstrokes make this set truly one-of-a-kind.
