DESCRIPTION

This stunning chandelier is a striking interpretation of the classic Sputnik design. Entirely crafted of brass, the structure comprises a vertical stem supported by a ceiling rose and ending in a sphere. A series of 20 arms radiate from the sphere, creating a dazzling effect, each topped with a sphere in clear glass. The spheres have two different sizes to create a dynamic effect and the bulbs inside at G9 max 18W. Showcased above a modern dining table or used to illuminate a retro-chic entryway or contemporary living room, this piece is a bold and refined choice.
