SULTAN COLLECTION PLATE #14

$77

DESCRIPTION

The magnificence and evocative culture of the Ottoman Empire are the inspiration for this collection of ceramic plates that pay homage to Ottoman sultans. This plate features the portrait of Roxane in Jean-Baptiste Racine's Bajazet by Eugène François Marie Joseph Devéria, the youthful and playful energy of the subject portrayed through the vibrant colors of her garb, the high-end coiffure, and warm gaze off in the distance. Arranged on a table or displayed on a wall with the other five to complete the Sultan Collection, this plate will be a sophisticated addition to a modern or eclectic decor.
