THE CONFORMISM SCULPTURE

$4,750

DESCRIPTION

This evocative sculpture embodies Alessandra Serina's personal artistic vision and continuous aesthetic research, making a statement in a modern living room or a private studio. Executed entirely by hand of black slate stone, it is a symbolic representation of today's conformism: the natural split side symbolizing our inborn spontaneous nature that becomes modified by social environment, just like the stone is smoothed and polished. This sculpture can be sold separately or in pairs (please note that price indicated is for a single piece) and each piece will show entirely unique features.
