B.B. for Reschio

THE LONG SIDE TABLE CONSOLE

$11,980

DESCRIPTION

A modern reinterpretation of the century-old jewelry work benches, this refined side table is made of stained beech wood and has a rectangular top with rounded edges, with a brushed brass band along the border and four small front drawers. The unique arrangement of the beech legs with brass details allow for greater stability, while enhancing its functional quality. Used as console or a desk, as display surface or working area, this remarkable piece will transform any space. Lamps not included.
