TONDO DONI RHAPSODY BLACK VASE

$4,310

DESCRIPTION

In music, Rhapsody is a free and varied composition. It is presented as a set of melodies, different among them for rhythm and harmony that it gives to the composition extemporized tones where its coherence it is expressed only in the general context. Tondo Doni collection has been inspired to this concept and it has created Rhapsody, a complex and artistic artifice where shapes of different dimensions converge in a unique item. This vase is composed of 6 spheres different in dimension and connected one to another in a vertical organic and plastic development, that lays on a bigger hemisphere which is the base. The stylistic coherence is expressed in the "dandelion" cut, which its name has been inspired from the flower, it embraces each sphere by exalting the brilliance of the crystal.
