UBI FIREGUARD

$2,420

DESCRIPTION

Designed to protect the living room from straying embers of open fireplaces, this fireguard combines contemporary fashion with great functionality. Crafted of a brass frame with curved legs and an iron mesh panel, this fireplace is solid, simple, and robust and easy to be placed into position using the two round handles that add a decorative touch. A must-have in any home, this fireguard can be customized in any size upon request, contact the Concierge for pricing, production, and delivery time in these options.
