DESCRIPTION

Wood becomes art in this sophisticated bar cabinet that embodies Marzia Boaglio's crafting and luxurious style. The square rosewood frame is supported by tall and slender legs with polished steel feet, the top unit showcasing a door with an inlaid design achieved by combining five different types of wood: maple, oak, mahogany, walnut, and wengè. The abstract geometric composition of curved and linear shapes moving in unexpected directions creates a stunning three-dimensional effect. The internal storage features mirrors, sensor lights, a push-pull shelf, and a drawer.
