VENDOME CHAIR

$3,160

DESCRIPTION

An effortless union of traditional craftsmanship and modern design sensibility, this chair exudes comfort and style while remaining true to its classical aesthetic roots. The angular frame is fashioned of solid beechwood, its warm golden hue complementing the seat cushion, upholstered in light-beige fabric. The fine details in the tapered feet, swooping architectural arms, and rectangular back are a testament to Selva's traditional crafting methods. Placed around a dining room table or desk with other chairs from the collection, this piece will be a distinctive finishing touch in any decor.
