VENDEMMIA WINE BOTTLE BY UGO LA PIETRA

$440

DESCRIPTION

Functional and stylish, this round ceramic bottle has a glossy white finish and is hand decorated with the image of a barefoot woman holding two large bunches of grapes in the act of grape stomping, a centuries-old practice that symbolizes the spirit of the harvest. The long, narrow neck and semi-spherical base have delicate detailing in turquoise and red. Made entirely at L'arte Nel Pozzo in Friuli on a design by Ugo La Pietra, this remarkable piece can be used as wine decanter or showcased by itself to add style to an end table or kitchen counter in any decor.
