DESCRIPTION

Part of a series of floor mirrors with a bold and sophisticated design, this piece will add an elegant decoration in a contemporary entryway, study, or living room. Its rectangular shape, supported by a wooden base, is made up of a series of mirrored glass elements joined in an aluminum trim and decorated with inserts in brushed brass and black Marquina marble. The chromatic effect is striking and highlights the various lines that run through the piece, evoking the network of public roads in Roman times.
