VIAGGIATORE CON PALLA SCULPTURE

$4,500

DESCRIPTION

Designed by Paolo Staccioli, this ceramic sculpture is part of a series of decorative pieces intended as a celebration of traveling. The figurine of a man stands with luggage in hand and a sphere at his feet, poetically symbolizing the world that he is about to explore and that simultaneously he is transfixed by. Bearing a delicate color palette and a polished finish, this statue will be a contemporary decoration to any setting.
