XXX SQUARE SIDE TABLE

$1,280

DESCRIPTION

Perfectly versatile and modern, this side table has a stainless steel square top with an irregular rim and a supporting base composed of three wrought-iron legs connected by a T-shaped piece. Entirely finished with a 24kt gold plating, this captivating piece features two contrasting finishes - scratched for the top and polished for the base - that add an alluring quality to the piece. It can be paired with the square coffee table in a living room for a cohesive look, or combined together with two or more from the XXX series to create a stunning and unique composite coffee table.
