Paolo Giordano

XY&Z TRIANGULAR CONSOLE

$5,725

DESCRIPTION

This exquisite piece of functional design will add a touch of contemporary decor to any room. Its unique shape is versatile and striking and the materials used make it timeless. The triangular structure is in bronzed steel and it supports a sheet of copper at the top, which folds on one of the sides creating a striking effect. The color combination is classic, while the shape is modern and the combination of these two qualities creates a timeless piece.
