ZARAFATALLBOY

$13,295

DESCRIPTION

Modern with timeless mid-century flair, this tallboy is a bedroom staple used for lingerie, foulards, and more, and features a streamlined design marked by a tall, rectangular frame and gracefully tapered tulipwood legs in a glossy black finish. The sleek structure is crafted of tulipwood and plywood with ebony wood veneer and features seven soft-close drawers (the top one is smaller than the others) lined with natural leather. The visually stunning and masterfully executed decorative walnut burl inlays that grace its front transform this functional piece of decor into a true work of art.
